

Contac's CEO named finalist for Entrepreneur of the Year award

Vancouver, Canada, July 14, 2009 – Contac Services Inc. is pleased to announce that its Chief Executive Officer, Riaz Pisani, has been named a finalist for the 2009 Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Awards, Pacific Region.

“The finalists were selected by an independent judging panel based on a number of criteria, including innovation, influence, financial performance and the ability to demonstrate a bold entrepreneurial spirit,” said Fred Withers, Program Director for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Awards in the Pacific region. “These finalists exemplify the outstanding business talent that exists here in British Columbia, and we're proud to honour them as leaders nurturing economic growth and innovation.”

Pisani's involvement with Contac began almost 20 years ago as a Board Director before taking the helm as President and CEO in 2005. Under his strategic leadership, he has grown Contac from a small entrepreneurial business to an industry leader with 200+ employees and operations and alliances in North America and Europe.

Pisani has led Contac through significant corporate milestones including the introduction of several innovative products; the acquisition of two companies; expansion into the travel, entertainment and sports markets; and continuous improvements to the company's marketing services, printing, fulfillment and logistics divisions.

“It is an honor to be shortlisted as a finalist for the Entrepreneur of the Year award,” said Contac's President and CEO Riaz Pisani. “The company's success is directly attributed to the hard work of our entire company. This nomination was possible because of our team effort to take the company to a new level.”

Award winners will be announced at a gala event on October 8, 2009, in Vancouver.
